

WEDNESDAY EVENING CONCERTS

Sponsored by the Friendship Heights Village Council

Concerts are performed Wednesdays, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., at the Village Center in Huntley Hall. For performances, please turn off any cell phones or electronic devices. If you arrive after the concert has begun, please wait for a break in the performance before entering the main hall. Thank you for your consideration.

Wednesday, Jan. 4—No Concert this evening.

Wednesday, Jan. 11 — Seraphim—Julie and Darrell Parsons — Both Julie and Darrell studied at Northwestern University where Julie was a senior voice / piano major and Darrell was a graduate assistant in the voice department working on a master's in voice. Their wide and varied individual careers prepared them to present an unusually broad repertoire of Broadway, classical, jazz and folk music.

Wednesday, Jan. 18 — Tales in the Village featuring Donna Ingham — Humorist and folklorist Donna Ingham takes the ancient art of storytelling and gives it a Texas twist to entertain audiences of all ages. Hear tall tales, folklore, historical and personal stories told as only a Texan could—or would.

Wednesday, Jan. 25 — Edita Vinnitskaya — Pianist Edita Vinnitskaya was born in Armenia and graduated the Komitas National Conservatory with highest honors (DMA) in 1988. Ms. Vinnitskaya was awarded honors for the first performance of the Beethoven piano trios in Transcaucasia in 1982-1984. She is a recipient of Armenian National and Transcaucasia piano prizes in 1975, 1980 and 1985. In 1986 she won first prize for interpretation of the Mozart Concerto #25 in C major. She also won the “Best accompanist in Armenia” prize in 1993. In October 1997 she was the winner of Jack Memorial competition for performing the Chopin Concerto #2 in f minor. In February 1998 she was a finalist of Russell C. Wonderlic recital competition (Baltimore), winner of several first prizes at the San Francisco international piano competition in September 1998 and won first prize at The North Carolina Greensboro piano competition, 1999. Her program will include works by Bach, Mozart, Chopin, Beethoven, Liszt and Villa-Lobos.
