

WEDNESDAY EVENING CONCERTS - 2010

Sponsored by the Friendship Heights Village Council

Evening concerts are performed on Wednesdays from 7 to 8 p.m. in Hubert Humphrey Park (or in Huntley Hall if inclement weather). As a courtesy to our performers when inside Huntley Hall, please turn off cell phones or electronic devices, and do not take reading materials or any food or drink into the hall. If you arrive late, please wait for a break in the performance before entering the hall. Thank you.

Wednesday, August 4—Barbara Martin and Mac Walter—

Barbara Martin and Mac Walter's music is a rich stew of earthy blues peppered with sassy, swinging jazz. Their performances are rooted in a healthy respect for the traditions of American music from Josh White to Bessie Smith to Billie Holiday. Martin's sultry, soulful voice combined with the bending, sliding strings of guitar wizard Mac Walter captivate audiences.

Wednesday, August 11—Washington Revels Sea Shanties—

Washington Revels presents "Songs of the Sea and Shore"—a program of nautical song, dance and ritual celebrating the traditions of the men who manned the great sailing ships and the women who sustained the life of the seafaring communities ashore. Revels has presented this material at many venues in the Washington area, including the Smithsonian Museums of American History and Natural History, the Corcoran Gallery, Alexandria Waterfront and National Harbor.

Wednesday, August 18—Chinese Dancers from the Ming Hui School—

The Ming Hui School of the Asian Community Service Center will present traditional Chinese dances in traditional costumes.

Wednesday, August 25—Benny Goodman Tribute with Robert Redd and William Wright—

Pianist Robert Redd and clarinetist William Wright continue the celebration of the 100th birthday of the "King of Swing," performing many of the jazz tunes that made Goodman famous.
