How Wonderful Is 100!

Melanie Rose White, Mayor

When the gurus at American Greetings target their audience, I'm convinced they have a person like me in mind. I love to send cards—for birthdays, anniversaries, promotions, you name it. The flashier the card, the better. My mom said I was born loving glitter! Nowadays so many people remember their friends on Facebook, but can't be bothered to mail a card. It's a wonderful feeling to know that people care enough to forward a digital message, but nothing compares to the joy of holding and re-reading a real card, long after that special occasion has passed.

On birthday cards, I almost always write something like "Have a great day and a terrific year ahead." It's not because I'm too lazy to dream up a different greeting for each recipient—it's just that I think birthdays are as much about the future as they are the present or past. It's the same with centennials.

Our village celebrates its Centennial this year, and the Center program directors are busy planning many events and activities to commemorate this milestone. When you think about our community turning 100 years old, it's easy to start thinking about the past. What was life like in 1914? What is different? What has stayed the same?

As tempting as it is to reminisce, a centennial, like a birthday, is a perfect time to think about the future. How can we promote the power of 100 years? What have we learned from the past? What lessons do we want to remember as we move forward?

As you look at the Centennial photo exhibit at the Center, it's easy to see how our community has changed physically over the years. Which resident in 1914 ever thought an ornate fountain and park benches would take the place of peach orchards? Did Colonel McAuliffe ever imagine his charming home becoming the site of a dramatic highrise? As I write these comments, the Village Council is in the process of redesigning two of our parks to accommodate a growing number of younger residents. I hope that these new greenspaces will continue to reflect the unique nature of Friendship Heights—a hallmark of our community for the last century.

Over the years, changes have come inside the Village Center, too. The Center is the heart of our community, and that's why it's displayed so prominently on our Centennial banner. Compare the activities in the Village newsletter in the 1980s with this month's edition, and you'll see how our programming has changed. When the Center opened in 1986, programs were sparsely attended and it took a while to determine what appealed to a community as diverse as ours. It seems hard to believe now, but it was difficult then to get folks to take a bus trip. Compare those early, tentative days with 2013 when an enthusiastic group of residents journeyed across the Atlantic aboard the Queen Mary 2 on the trip of a lifetime.

As we begin our second century, it's a challenge to envision what changes the future will bring. I do know that with the guidance of the talented and dedicated Village Staff, any changes will reflect the needs and wishes of those who live and work in our village.

None of the services in our community are possible without your tax dollar. Please read the Treasurer's Report by Dr. Alvan Morris on page 5 where you'll see that this is the ninth consecutive year that the proposed tax rate is 4¢ per $100—the lowest our Charter allows! We're lucky in Friendship Heights to have the financial resources to plan for the future in a calm and deliberate manner that considers every aspect of life in our urban community.

On behalf of the Council, I wish you a happy and productive 2014. Please take some time during this banner year to celebrate the Centennial and to think about the future of our community. It's our 100th birthday—a perfect opportunity to look back and plan ahead.

2013 Village Report

Julian P. Mansfield, Village Manager

Following the death of Village Council member Leonard “Chip” Mudd at the end of 2012, the Council filled the vacant seat by appointing John Mertens in March. Mr. Mertens represents the Village on the Friendship Heights Transportation Management District (TMD) Advisory Committee and has served on the Community Advisory Committee. He also serves as Chief Election Judge for the County at our precinct.

In May, Mr. Mertens and the other six Village Council incumbents were unanimously re-elected for two years. Each Council member serves as an officer: Melanie Rose White, Mayor; Maurice Trebach, Chairman; Robert Schwarzbart, Vice Chairman; Elizabeth Demetra Harris, Secretary; Alvan Morris, Treasurer; Leonard Grant, Historian, and John Mertens, Parliamentarian.

We rely on a large number of volunteers from the community to help us at the Village Center every day. My special thanks to them and to our wonderful staff.

PREPARING FOR THE VILLAGE'S CENTENNIAL

Led by Council member Leonard Grant, the Village Centennial Committee met throughout the year in preparation for our community's 100th anniversary in 2014. Committee members Ron Irion, Alfred Muller, Stephanie Olshan, Rachael Schacherer, and Joel Williams worked closely with Village staff and Mayor Melanie

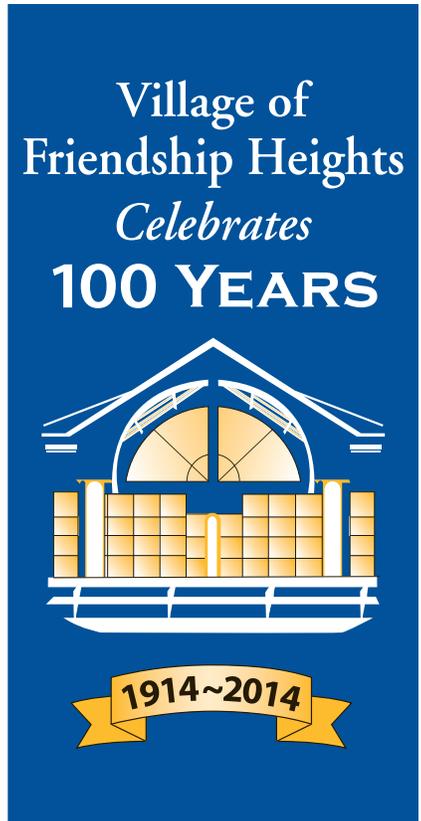

White. The Committee developed a number of projects, including banners to be displayed on Village streetlight poles; new custom street identification signs; a book about the history of the Village (due in the spring); wall displays at the Village Center featuring photos, maps, and memorabilia; a series of programs throughout the Centennial on different aspects of our history; and Centennial-themed special events, such as Community Day on April 13 and our July 4 celebration. Check our newsletter for program information and updates during this special year.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

In April and October we again participated in the National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day. This very successful program, sponsored by the Drug Enforcement Administration, addresses a vital public safety and health issue. Montgomery County Police officers came to the Center to collect and safely dispose of unwanted or expired prescription drugs. The much-appreciated shredding truck service also continued. Check our newsletter for an announcement of the next shredding date in spring 2014.

The Village continues to be well-represented on the Friendship Heights Transportation Management District Advisory Committee. Council member Len Grant completed his final term and was succeeded by Rachael Schacherer, a resident who also is one of the lead organizers of the Taste of Friendship Heights and serves on our Community Advisory Committee and Centennial Committee. The TMD advises the County on a range of traffic and transportation issues, including pedestrian safety.

Council member Bob Schwarzbart continued to serve as a residential representative on the Western Montgomery County Citizens Advisory Board, a 19-member group that advises the Montgomery County Executive and County Council on a range of local issues.

Our email alert group receives regular messages about our website updates and special program and community announcements. If you have not yet signed up, send an email to jmansfield@friendshipheightsmd.gov.

Mayor Melanie White was honored by Maryland Lt. Gov. Anthony Brown at the MML Conference in Ocean City.

The Village continued its active involvement with the Maryland Municipal League, attending meetings with the County Executive, County Council, and Maryland legislators. In June, Mayor Melanie White received special recognition at MML's annual convention in Ocean City for her 20 years of service as a municipal official. I serve as Treasurer of the Montgomery County Chapter.

VILLAGE HONORS RESIDENTS

The Council continued its tradition of recognizing Village residents for their contributions to the community. Marianne Cook was honored at our Community Day celebration with a resolution adopted by the Council and a plaque honoring her as the first Village Centenarian Volunteer. Marianne entertains guests with her piano playing at our Tuesday Tea program every week. At our July 4 celebration, Mayor Melanie White presented Maurice Trebach with a plaque in recognition of his service as Chairman of the Village Council for the past 10 years. Council member Alvan Morris received the Elizabeth Scull Outstanding Community Service Award, along with proclamations from our state delegates and senator.

The Council also presented Community Service Awards to Village residents Helen Vamvas and Lee Farber.

NEIGHBORHOOD UPDATES

In June the Council approved the concept of installing playgrounds in Willoughby Park and Page Park and hired a designer. The plan is to install playground equipment in the lower grassy oval in Willoughby Park for kids ages five and younger. Playground equipment in Page Park would be for older children. The Council then held a community forum in September, with a large number of residents expressing their views. More feedback was received at subsequent Council meetings and via email and letters, and the process continues into 2014.

WSSC continued working on a comprehensive water main replacement project on Willard Avenue from River Road to Wisconsin Avenue. The work is expected to continue through the spring of 2014, including the replacement of a large section of pipe under Friendship Boulevard between Willard and North Park Avenues. We will keep residents informed as we hear updates on WSSC's progress.

PARTNERSHIPS WITH COUNTY AND STATE

Montgomery County Police Chief Thomas Manger

The Police Field Office at 4602 North Park Avenue, now in its 17th year of operation, is a successful partnership between the Village and the Montgomery County Police Department's Bethesda District, headed by Captain David Falcinelli. The facility provides increased police presence and visibility in the community.

The Maryland Motor Vehicle Administration's Mobile Office is a convenient, reliable, and popular service in the Village. The bus is scheduled every month and parks on Friendship Boulevard, next to the Village Center,

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT: VILLAGE CENTER LIBRARY

Village resident volunteers Tobi Esler and Ken Niles manage the Village Center library. The Center receives numerous donations of books, so Tobi and Ken stay busy keeping the shelves organized and inviting. We also maintain a number of popular magazine and newspaper subscriptions. You can visit the library during the Village Center's open hours (seven days a week). Stop by anytime and pick up

Treasurer's Report

Dr. Alvan Morris

There is an old adage that has several versions: "Take care of the nickels, and the dollars will take care of themselves." That philosophy has served us well in Friendship Heights.

From FY07 through FY09 we added more than $1,600,000 to Village reserves while keeping property taxes (the only extra tax that Village residents pay) at the lowest level possible. In FY10 and FY11 we ran deficits totaling $128,546—our first deficits in many, many years, but much lower than expected. We watched our expenses very carefully and it made a difference.

Then, in FY12, and continuing through FY13, we ran surpluses. Nearly $700,000 over the two years and far better than our projections. Income tax revenues were back up! Now in FY14, we expect income tax to be down again. Our budgeted surplus of over $155,000 now looks like it will be closer to $14,000, and that could disappear if we have significant snow storms. The moral is that, at least in these crazy economic times, we cannot get too confident and we have to remain careful. We also continue to maintain substantial reserves and remain debt free.

For FY15 we are expecting a nearly break-even scenario with an expected surplus of around $18,000. The property tax rate will remain 4¢ per $100, the lowest rate allowed by our charter, for the ninth consecutive year. We will continue to celebrate our Centennial, and all services will remain intact. We will also continue to take care of the nickels.

The proposed Village budget for FY15 follows, along with an explanation of the various categories. As always, the narrative only hits certain highlights of the budget, and the footnotes at the end should be consulted for a more complete explanation of the indicated categories. Public hearings will be held on the proposed FY15 budget in February and March.

REVENUES

For FY15, income taxes are budgeted at $1,028,000 which is the same amount we are expecting to receive in FY14. Properties in the Village were reassessed this year. While the amount of increases varied, we are anticipating an overall increase in revenue of 10%. Most other income sources are projected to remain the same, including Gas/highway tax and Municipal Revenue sharing which continue to be political hot buttons. Village Center rental income has dropped a bit. Consider using the Center for your next event!

EXPENDITURES

General Government: This category is being increased 2% over the FY14 budget.

Public Safety: No increase projected.

Public Works: Again, per contract, the cost of the bus will rise in FY15. Our bus contractor does, however, expect to add a new, accessible backup bus. "Village-scape" reflects the lower cost of the flower baskets.

Health/Education/Social Services: No increase projected.

Recreation & Parks: Our Centennial celebration will continue throughout 2014. Additional money has again been included in the "Center special events" category for expenses related to this special celebration. "Landscaping contract" reflects additional enhancements (allowed by savings in "Village-scape").

Capital Improvements Fund:

This year the Village bought a number of new chairs for the auditorium and has initiated work with a consultant to plan new playgrounds. At this point no decisions on additional capital improvements have been made by the Council. Funds will be transferred to the Capital Improvements Fund as necessary.

Once again, the Village's strong financial condition, combined with careful management, has enabled us to keep services intact and the tax rate at the lowest possible level allowed by our charter.

2013 Program Report

Jennie Fogarty, Associate Program Director
Anne O'Neil, Associate Program Director

2013 was another busy year at the Village Center! Village residents participated in art, exercise, language, bridge, computer, and photography classes, as well as discussion groups; Scrabble, book, chess, and bridge clubs; movies, a children's art camp, a farmers market, health programs, lectures, concerts, storytelling, and trips. There is something for everyone here.

CLASSES

Two new classes were extremely popular. We were pleased to be able to offer two four-week series of classes on American Songwriters taught by well-known musician and humorist John

"Florence," by Doris Haskel, one of the art instructors at the Center, was featured at Friendship Gallery in November.

Eaton. Several computer education classes using iPads were taught by Pam Holland, of TechMoxie. The Center continues to offer art classes for all ages and skill levels—Acrylic or Oil Painting, Still Life Painting, Multi Media, Basic Photography for adults and children, and Portraiture in Pencil and Pastel. In addition, Millie Shott (the Village art curator) again offered a summer art camp for children.

Exercise classes remain in demand, and we offered a variety of them. This year students were allowed to attend the first class for free. Current exercise classes at the Center include

- Yoga
- Mat Pilates
- Strength Training
- Tai Chi
- Chair Exercise
- Fall Prevention
- Walking Club
- YMCA Fit 4-Ever
- OASIS Resistance Training

Classes in Italian, through the Italian Cultural Society, and Yiddish continued. Bridge classes were well-attended and the Village Bridge Club, Chess Group, and Book Club meet regularly. A visiting AU professor, Alejandro Pastori, led a French conversation group and a chess group. Chess is now played every Wednesday at noon and all are welcome.

BOOK SIGNINGS AND LECTURES

Speakers at the Center in 2013 included County Police Chief Thomas Manger; County Council member Nancy Floreen; Aviva Kempner on her making of the film The Life and Times of Hank Greenberg; Rob Bamberger on Louis Armstrong; Judy Scott Feldman on controversial projects on the National Mall; Joan Hart on American artists in France; Linda Kenyon portraying Babe Zaharias; and Carmen Lattimore in a one-woman show about Harriet Tubman; Carol Bessette on two women who were spies during two different American wars; Allan Stypeck on collecting rare books (he also appraised books on another date); Village resident Ambassador William Bodde on three Presidents and their crises; and, Christy Page on the Affordable Care Act. ON THE GO

The grandest trip of the year—perhaps in the Center’s history—was a voyage to England on the Queen Mary 2 in October. Twenty-three passengers enjoyed eight days on the luxurious ship and two nights in London. Day trips closer to home included visits to Fredericksburg, Baltimore, Charles Town, St. Michaels, Lancaster County, and Rehoboth Beach. We also visited the National Gallery, Hillwood, and, the new casino at Arundel Mills. Villagers enjoyed Nationals baseball, performances at the National Theatre and Arena Stage, and lunch at Range.

FOR THE KIDS

The Village Center continued to offer a variety of programs for children, ranging from art to storytelling to splash parties in the park. Among the highlights was a week-long summer art camp for kids. In the fall, Village children enjoyed a hayride, fed farm animals, and picked pumpkins. We also continued our weekly drop-in Village Playtime.

In May we were off to the races at Charles Town.

In July we visited St. Michaels on the Eastern Shore.

Throughout the year, children from toddlers to teens enjoyed musical programs ranging from Hawaiian music and dance to Mariachis de los Compadres to sea shanties by the Washington Revels. Family-friendly movies ranging from Wreck It Ralph to Diary of a Wimpy Kid, had special appeal for children. In 2014, look for chances to take classes with your kids, as well as an array of music and cultural events for children.

CONCERTS

The Wednesday Evening Concert Series continued to feature the best of local and national performers. Audiences enjoyed performances of classical music by Ellen Tenenbaum and Thomas Pandolfi. Fans of the opera enjoyed performances by Antonio Guiliano, while the Friday Morning Music Club highlighted the talents of local teens. Audiences were also treated to vocal performances, including concerts by Seraphim, Eric Byrd, and Barbara Martin. The Landon Symphonette Chamber Ensemble Series continued with performances in January, May, and October.

Throughout the year, jazz performances included concerts by Rick Whitehead and Susan Jones’ Caliente. The Dixie Power Trio featured music ranging from Dixieland to Broadway to Songs from the Great American Songbook. International sounds scanning the musical globe included performances ranging from Machaya Klezmer, IONA, and Mariachis de Los Compadres. International dance performances ran the gamut from Israeli folk dances from the Kinor Dancers to Hawaiian moves from Hui O Ka Pua ‘Ilima. Rousing performances of klezmer by Jinny Marsh’s Hot Kugel Band and doowop by Ray Apollo added to the fun.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Issues of health and health care have always been important at the Center. Pneumonia and flu shots were given by the Visiting Nurse Association in October. Suburban Hospital continued to provide weekly blood pressure checks and nurse consultations, as well as monthly health lectures. AARP Safe Driving workshops were offered in the spring and fall and were filled, as always. The speech therapy and aphasia support group, “Express Yourself,” was extended by Suburban for another year. It meets once a month and always has a big crowd. The Vision Support Group, a partnership between the Prevention of Blindness Society and the Village, continued with good speakers and fellowship. Two very special programs were a Saturday forum on the aging retina in June and a talk by radio personality Ed Walker in December. The University of Maryland’s Cooperative Extension Service continues to provide free health insurance assistance to seniors at the Center.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Our special community events—New Year’s Day Open House, Community Day, July 4, and Taste of Friendship Heights—were festive and provided an opportunity to recognize volunteers who have donated their time to the Village.

ART EXHIBITIONS

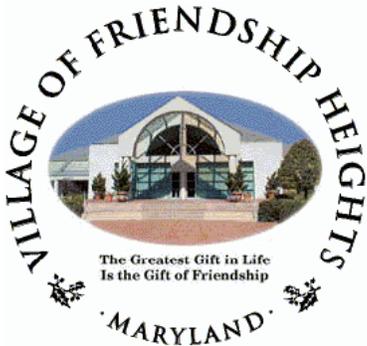

Through the efforts of Millie Shott, our curator, Friendship Gallery features monthly art exhibits. This year the Center sponsored three community art shows in connection with special events in the Village: the Fourth of July, the Taste of Friendship Heights in September (“Cuisine Art”), and a Centennial exhibit that began in December. “A Holiday Affair,” an artisan craft fair, took place again in November.

THANK YOU

Many volunteers contribute countless hours to assist with the programs at the Center. Our special thanks to the Village Council, our committees (including the Program Advisory Committee, whose valuable input is always appreciated), volunteers, and staff for their dedicated efforts throughout the year.

In October we took our longest trip yet, a transatlantic voyage aboard the Queen Mary 2.
