Richmond, VA for "Hollywood Costume" Exhibit

Tuesday, January 14, 2014

Richmond rolls out the red carpet for the U.S. premiere of "Hollywood Costume," an exhibit showcasing costumes from the Golden Age of film to modern blockbusters at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. We'll spend the day at the museum, touring the costume exhibition, and enjoying a special movie-themed luncheon. You'll also have time to view the museum's permanent collections and visit its exquisite gift shop. In this exhibit featuring more than 100 costumes, you'll step behind the scenes to explore collaborations among directors, actors and costume designers that bring to life some of the more unforgettable characters.

Sign-ups for residents begin immediately; nonresidents may sign up beginning Dec. 9. The cost of the trip, which includes round-trip transportation, admission to the museum and exhibits, lunch, and all taxes and gratuities, is $98. There are 24 spaces available.
