

WEDNESDAY EVENING CONCERTS - 2010

Sponsored by the Friendship Heights Village Council

Concerts are performed Wednesdays, from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., in Huntley Hall in the Village Center. As a courtesy to our performers please turn off any cell phones or electronic devices. If you arrive after the concert has begun, please wait for a break in the performance before entering the auditorium.

Wednesday, Jan. 12—Ellen Tenenbaum—Ellen Tenenbaum studies piano with Leander Bien, having studied with Carolyn Lamb Booth from 2000 to 2009. Ellen performs at Strathmore Mansion, and Georgetown University Hospital, embassies and local community centers and churches. She is an active member of the Adult Music Student Forum, the Friday Morning Music Club, and the Piano Society of Greater Washington. The Piano Society of Greater Washington gives five performances a year at Calvary Lutheran Church in Silver Spring. Her program will include works by Mozart, Beethoven, Chopin and Debussy.

Wednesday, Jan. 19—Tales in the Village—Storytelling featuring Ellouise Schoettler, Linda Fang and Noa Baum. It has been described as an ancient art form, a valuable form of human expression, the currency of our human contact. It's hard to believe but many people think storytelling is just for children,” said Ellouise Schoettler, Tales in the Village producer. This new series is a terrific opportunity to discover, no matter your age, a story is the shortest distance between two people. Beginning on the 19th and continuing every third Wednesday through May, the Village will welcome a host of storytellers, known nationally and internationally. The performances, beginning at 7:30 p.m. will last one hour.

Wednesday, Jan. 26—Barrie Goodman Jazz—Jazz instrumentalist and cabaret singer and actress Patsy Grady Abrams team up for a night of nostalgic music ranging from the '20s to the '50s.
